Anti-ragging Squad Raid Report

Date of raid: December 26, 2025

Time of raid: 6:00 PM to 8:30 PM

Locations Inspected: Boys' Hostel (all floors), Girls Hostel (all floors), Student Mess, Canteen, and the area near the sports ground.

Squad Members Present:

1. Dr. Jaydebi Sarkar (Co-Chairman, Senior Faculty)
2. Dr. Sandip Samanta (Member secretary)
3. Mr. Pankaj Sharma (Faculty Member)
4. Student Representative (name withheld for confidentiality)

Raid Details: The Anti-Ragging Squad conducted a surprise inspection to ensure a ragging-free environment within the campus. The team inspected the Girls' Hostel, Boys' Hostel, starting with the common areas before proceeding to random room checks. A similar inspection was conducted in the main campus mess, canteen during its closing hours.

Observations:

- The overall atmosphere in the hostel was calm, with students studying or socializing peacefully.
- No overt or suspicious activities indicating ragging were observed.
- Anti-ragging posters with helpline numbers were prominently displayed in the hostel lobby and canteen, and appeared to be in good condition.

Incidents Detected: No incidents of ragging were detected during this surprise raid.

Action Taken by the Squad:

- The squad interacted with several students in the hostel and canteen to informally check for any issues.
- Students were reminded of the institution's strict anti-ragging policy and encouraged to report any concerns to the squad or the national helpline.

Recommendations for the Anti-Ragging Committee:

The squad recommends continuing unannounced raids regularly, especially during the initial months of the academic session. The committee should also review the effectiveness of the current awareness campaign.
